WMJR Shines At British Field Day Saturday June 16

This year's British Field Day featured a great turn out of cars, Jaguar in particular, wonderful weather, and lots of interested viewers.

Also plenty of well behaved dogs, prompting one onlooker to observe "this is a dog show with cars".

The Liberty Park venue adopted in recent years is very congenial for this purpose, offering ample space, lots of shade, and easy access from the park loop road.

Attracting most attend were the Paskers' fabulous Mark V Drop Head, a recently restored XK140 Drop Head, and the Hanover's buffed out rolling XK120 chassis.

As usual there was a great group of British motorcycles, a tight and noisy autocross chase-around-the-cones course, and yummy food from a mobile chow truck.

Ken Borg with helpers manned a booth with membership information on the club and an ample supply of gooey and tasty chocolate donuts.

Members seen in the crowd included David Hobson, Jim and Hermione Klekas, Ken and Joann Borg, Duane and Leann Allred, Barry and Allison Hanover, Art and Martha Pasker, Joe Todd, Keith Gardner, J and Kay Jennings, and your obedient scribe Gary Lindstrom.

Apologies to those we missed.
