Annual WMJR BBQ at Borgs' Cabin, Midway 5pm Saturday, September 23

Yes, Boys and Girls, it's time once again for the WMJR BBQ at the Borgs' lovely cabin in Midway.

Star Chef Duane Allred will once again be operating the braai (South African for grill) offering bratwurst, burgers, and perhaps even a few chiens chauds (French for hot dog).

The venue is perfect for this event, offering a terrific view, lots of space including a roomy outside deck, and a pleasant drive to a cooler location.

And once again Your Obedient Scribe will lead those who would like guidance

Walmart (ex K-mart) 2705 E. Parley's Way at 4pm for a 4:15pm departure.

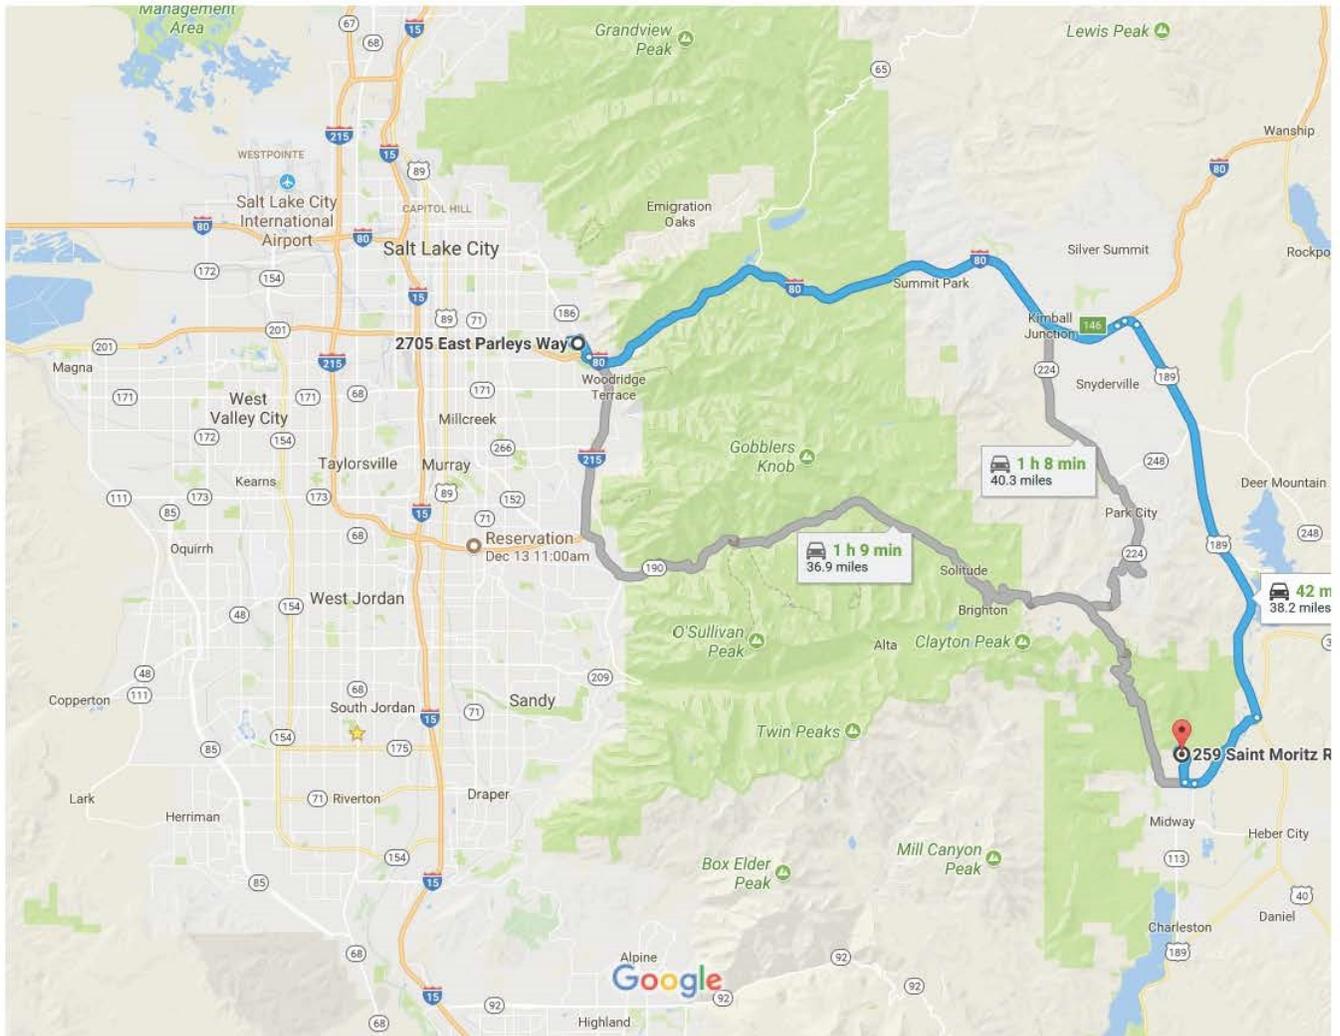

Please bring a side dish or dessert to share, and any libations you would like other than the provided soft drinks. There will be extra points for driving a Jaguar or other British car.

Those traveling independently can GPS to 259 St. Moritz Rd., Midway, UT 84060, 435-654-BORG (2674) or follow the directions on the next two pages.

Great Turn Out, Weather At Park City Classic Car Show August 26

In the humble opinion of the organizing committee, this was the best yet of PCCCS's conducted by the WMJR.

Although we had fewer parking spaces due to construction, the number of cars entered turned out to be just right. Displaying cars were Jerry Gill, Jim Klekas, Jim Revel, Gary Lindstrom, J and Kay Jennings, John and Liz Green, Brenda and Bob Fellingner, Jane and Mitri Muna, Art Pasker, and Rolf Bremer. Also seen in the crowd was Lee Taylor—regrets to those we missed.

Barry Hanover entered his XK120 but had to send regrets.

Many thanks to door prize and goodie bag donors, including Ken Garff Jaguar, SNG Barratt, XKs Unlimited, Victoria British, Moss Motors, PMB Performance, and our own Kay Jennings.

Web Site Improvements

While the appearance may not look too different, there have been some “back end” improvements you may want to check out. In particular the club is now using a very nifty photo gallery service (SmugMug.com) which is making it a breeze for your webmaster to post and maintain photo galleries.

Check it out, and if you have photos from past events you’d like to share, send ‘em along to be included!
