July 4 Millcreek Area Rolling Car Show

Well, even though the Glenwild Car Show was cancelled, another show popped up and was publicized through the BMCU email list.

Despite it not being a WMJR event (or even publicized therein — apologies) several members showed up and had a great time on a delightful Independence Day morning.

The concept was an interesting one—rendezvous at a convenient and amply sized venue (Eastwood Elementary School on Wasatch Boulevard in this case), enjoy the cars in place for an hour, and then drive a circuitous route through lovely neighborhoods whose curbs were full of waving and cheering admirers, young and old.

There was a truly eclectic mix of vehicles on hand including classic Jaguars and other Britmobiles (boring?), American classics and retromods, race cars, hot rods, and even hydraulically leaping low-riders. What fun!

WMJR faces seen in the crowd (as they say on the society pages) were Ken Borg, Jim Klekas, and Your Obedient Scribe. Apologies as always to those we missed.

British Field Day, eat your heart out!
