WMJR Returns To A Favorite: East Canyon Tour To Taggarts Grill

A tradition was renewed on Saturday July 17 when the club transited Emigration and East Canyons to Morgan UT for lunch at Taggarts Grill.

There was a bit of a wait to be seated at this ever popular spot but eventually we enjoyed several adjacent tables on their patio.

After lunch folks had several options to return home, including west to US-89, back over East Canyon, or east on I-84 to the junction with I-80 to Park City.

Bah!

Attendees included Ken and JoAnn Borg, Bud and Betty Merritt, Rick and

Julie Southwick, Jim and Hermione Klekas, David Dobson and Edie Pike,

Those who picked the last were “hatin’ life” as the saying goes because between US-40 and Kimball Junction I-80 harrowed to one lane (!) with the heavy westbound traffic backed up for miles.

Our Annual Jaguar Car Show This Year Will Be Saturday August 21 At the Corner Restaurant in Midway UT

After years on Main Street in Park City with other car clubs this year the WMJR officers have opted for a smaller, more laid-back Jaguar-only event in Midway UT.

Lest you think this is “in the boonies” note it is only 18 miles away from Park City Main Street.

The venue will be the spacious lawn at the Corner Restaurant on 195 W. Main Street, centrally located in the Swiss-themed town.

We ask cars to appear

(with their owners?) starting at 9am, with all cars in place by 10am.

The show will run until 2:30pm, with all cars asked (and their owners?) to vacate by 3:00pm.

Those interested in caravanning from the Salt

Lake Valley are invited to rendezvous at the east end of the Walmart (ex K-mart) parking lot on Parleys Way at 8:10am for an 8:30am departure.

If you’re planning on this option please RSVP to Gary Lindstrom (see contact info on the last page).

Any questions on this event should be directed to the event organizer, Jim Klekas (again, see contact info on the last page).

British Field Day Returns To Salt Lake City's Liberty Park Saturday August 28

After cancelation last year and deferrals earlier this year the British Field Day Rides Again!

The venue is the same as always—the east side of Liberty Park in Salt Lake City, and the attractions are expected to be the same as always, to wit:

- A sunny spot for shady people (apologies to Graham Greene) reserved for Jaguars. No, make that a shady spot for sunny people—WMJR members!
- A timed autocross event for those with lead feet and eager Britmobiles.

- Lots and lots of rare British motorcycles.
- One or more food trucks, though self-catered picnics are al-lax, refresh, talk Jaguars, and recruit new members.

Did I forget anything? Oh yes, there is an entry form on the next page which if completed in advance will expedite registration.

Registration begins at 8am (or even a bit earlier). Cars should be in place by 9am, and removed promptly after 2pm.

ways welcome.

- Gawd Knows what surprise vehicles may show up —remember the year the tracked Alvis mobile cannon appeared?!?
- Plenty of time to re-
